GOP SENATORIAL CANDIDATE DAVID DRUM
TO SPEAK AT UNIVERSITY FRIDAY, MAY 21

MISSOULA--

David G. Drum, Billings, a candidate for the Republican nomination to the U. S. Senate, will speak at noon Friday, May 21, in the University Center Mall at the University of Montana. The speech will be open to the public without charge.

Drum, who is running for the Senate seat currently held by Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., will speak on his campaign platform. Platform-related topics will include unemployment, inequitable freight rates, energy and the need for innovative leadership in national government. A question and answer period with the audience will follow the speech.

A member of the Montana House of Representatives in 1967, Drum served from district 9 (Yellowstone County). He was a member of the Montana Constitutional Convention in 1972 and is currently a member of the Montana Board of Natural Resources and Conservation and the Montana Governor's Committee for International Trade Development.

Drum is a founder of the Kampgrounds of America (KOA), a nationwide chain of campgrounds headquartered in Billings. He is the owner of Drum Land and Livestock, a wheat and cattle ranch near Malta, and is president of Montana Beef Industries and T-Bone Feeders, Inc., Billings.

Friday's public forum at UM is one in a series designed to bring current political candidates to the University and Missoula. Forum '76 programs are sponsored by the Associated Students of UM.
